Episode No. 8.

* * *

Terence O'Rourke, picked up by Buck McLeod's outlaws after a bad fall, introduces himself as "Arizona Pete," a fugitive from justice. He satisfies them of his identity and joins the gang, who are setting out to steal all the cattle of the Marshall Ranch.

Stella Montrose, false friend of Mary Marshall, and tool of Topaz Taggart, trusted manager of the ranch but leader of the outlaws, engages Bud Hughes, the lookout, in a tryst and then signals the gang who bind and gag him, then lock the cowboys in the bunkhouse and run off the cattle.

The cowboys are released by O'Rourke and they start a gun battle with the rustlers who succeed in getting away with only half the herd. Mary, joining the fight, sneaks up on "Arizona Pete" and holds the muzzle of her gun to his breast, but he gives away his disguise and tells her that he is O'Rourke.
